Course Description

PM203 Growing Spiritually for Ministry

This course delves into your knowledge of God by examining your zeal for God. Do you know the price of ministry and the suffering involved for the gospels' sake? This course is designed to teach you spiritual maintenance through study habits and the need for prayer and fasting in an effort to know God at a greater level to be of greater effect in the Kingdom of Heaven.

PM204 How to Labor on the Foundation

This course introduces you to service in ministry by teaching you to walk in humility. Through the word of God you will learn the correct mindset and conduct with regard to serving God's people.

PM205 Defining the Five Ministerial Gifts

This course is designed to explain the function of each ministerial gift and the areas of ministry in which these gifts would be utilized. This course will answer questions concerning the roles of these gifts and dispel false doctrine concerning their application.

PM206 Knowing the Holy Spirit for Ministry

This course is created to further the lives of Christ's disciples through the teaching of Christian conduct and enlightenment as to how ministers get off track. This course also explains how to effectively minister the gospel of Jesus Christ.

PM207 Ministering the Gospel Effectively

This is a course offered for those who want to learn how to prepare a sermon or a speech. This course will instruct you on how to study the word of God in preparation of a message and the Holy Spirit's role in this process. You will gain insight into your devotional time with God and dependency on the voice of God to bring forth revelation of His Holy Word.

PM208 Altar Call

This course properly explains the importance of the altar call and the method used to transition from the closing of a message to opening the altar.

PM209 Spiritual Warfare

This course delves into the warfare waged against believers by the spiritual hosts of wickedness and properly equips the believer with righteous weapons to bring victory.

PM210 The Gift of Prophecy

This course teaches the principles of the Gift of Prophecy, not the office of the Prophet. It will help you identify the characteristics of the gift and its purpose within the local church.

TRACK 3: Ministerial Studies (MS) -- Pre-requisite: Successful completion of PM207 Ministering the Gospel Effectively, PM209 Spiritual Warfare, or passing Ministry-entry Exam (MEA).

These courses are designed to further develop ordained ministers in the area of Biblical study and practical application. These courses are reserved for ordained ministers on the foundation, but exceptions may be made at the discretion of the instructor.

MS300 Counseling for Ministry

The body of Christ has numerous entities that grow and thrive from the life of God's word. A weekly sermon or message is inspiring and fruitful, yet there are times when individual counsel in a one-on-one setting proves beneficial in the life of an individual. This course properly teaches one how to counsel married couples, singles, parents, financial stewardship and effective communication skills through the word of God by using biblical principles and practical application.

MS301 Angels and Demonology

Although angels and demons cannot be seen with the human eye they are real. They are supernatural beings with supernatural powers, but neither is God nor are they to be worshipped. This course is not a study of angels or demons, but it will through the study of the scriptures identify the true nature of demons (fallen angels) and how they influence and attack the mind; and how, through the Holy Spirit, the church is empowered to stand against demonic forces. It will also give an understanding of God's purpose for creating angels and why He's placed them on earth to assist His church.

Courses will be added as the need for our spiritual growth and development continues to increase.
